

Ishikawa Japanese Studies Program

1 General Overview

- This program is aimed at groups of working adults or university students from foreign countries who are learning Japanese. It gives participants the opportunity to study about and experience Japanese language and culture while participating on a homestay program.
- Program Features:
  - The length of the program can be adjusted from 1- 2 weeks to 3 months according to the wishes of the applicants.
  - In teaching about Japanese culture, the program makes full use of Ishikawa's abundance of nature, history, and culture.
  - Participants have the precious opportunity to experience life in a regular Japanese home through the homestay program which is designed to help them understand Japanese culture through daily life and deepen relations with local residents.
- From the time of its inception in 1987 to 2012 , the program has hosted 3832 participants from 55 universities and groups representing 22 countries (for example: U.S.A. – Princeton University and the Mansfield Fellows Program; Canada – Université de Montreal; Australia – Monash University; China – City University of Hong Kong and Jiangsu Province Japanese Language Teachers Group; and more).

Our program has received much acclaim overseas for being an excellent Japanese language and cultural studies program.

2 Program Details

(1) Japanese Language Studies

- Language classes are held every Monday through Friday (except holidays) during the duration of the program, for 3 to 4 hours starting at 9 a.m.
- Each group of participants is separated into different class levels (maximum 10 people per class).
- In principle, classes are taught by members of the Ishikawa Prefecture Japanese Language Teachers Association. The cost of the instructors is 3,000 yen for each one hour class.

(2) Japanese Cultural Studies

- Cultural lessons are held in the afternoons during the duration of the program.
- In addition to various cultural workshops held at the International Lounge and International Salon, there are also field trips to various cultural facilities in the Noto and Kaga regions, as well as lectures on Japanese culture and visits to local industries.

(3) Homestay Program

- During the program, participants will participate in a homestay in the prefecture to experience the daily life of a regular Japanese family and to gain an understanding of the unique culture and way of thinking of the Japanese people.
- Homestay families are all volunteers registered with the Ishikawa Foundation for International Exchange.
- The cost of one night per person is 3,000 yen (includes breakfast and dinner).
